

Privacy Policy

What information do we collect?

We collect basic contact information from you when you request information or fill out the demo registration form. When registering or inputting data on our site, as appropriate, you may be asked to enter the following information: name, e-mail address, telephone, organization name, and other information. You may, however, visit our site anonymously.

What do we use your information for?

Any of the information we collect from you may be used in one of the following ways:

- To personalize your experience - your information helps us to better respond to your individual needs.
- To improve customer service - your information helps us to more effectively respond to your customer service requests and support needs.
- To process transactions
- Your information, whether public or private, will not be sold, exchanged, transferred, or given to any other company for any reason whatsoever, without your consent, other than for the express purpose of delivering the purchased product or service requested.
- To send periodic emails - The email address you provide will only be used to send you information and updates pertaining to your request.

Note: If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, we include detailed unsubscribe instructions at the bottom of each email.

How do we protect your information?

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information when you enter, submit, or access this information.

Do we use cookies?

Yes (Cookies are small files that a site or its service provider transfers to your computer's hard drive through your Web browser (if you allow) that enables the sites or service providers systems to recognize your browser and capture and remember certain information.

We use cookies to understand and save your preferences for future visits.

If you prefer, you can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies via your browser settings. Like most websites, if you turn your cookies off, some of our services may not function properly.

Do we disclose any information to outside parties?

We do NOT sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information. This does not include trusted third parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our site policies, or protect ours or others rights, property, or safety. However, non-personally identifiable visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, or other uses.

Childrens Online Privacy Protection Act Compliance

The safety of children using the website www.cmasas.org is of special concern to us. We comply strictly with applicable laws and regulations, including the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998, for the protection of children's online privacy, and in general we do not:

1. collect online contact information from children under the age of 13 without prior parental notification and consent which will include an opportunity for the parent to prevent use of the information and the child's participation in the related activity. Without prior parental consent, online information will only be used to respond directly to a child's request and will not be used for other purposes.
2. collect the personally identifiable offline contact information of a child under age 13 without prior parental consent.
3. distribute to third parties any personally identifiable information relating to a child under age 13 without prior parental consent.
4. give children under age 13 the ability to publicly post or otherwise distribute personally identifiable contact information without prior parental consent.
5. entice any child by the prospect of a special game, prize, or other activity, to divulge more information than is needed to participate in the activity.

Policies for Children Under the Age of 13

PEG encourages parents and guardians to spend time online with their children and to participate together in online activities. No information should be submitted or posted through our services by any student or visitor under 13 years of age without the consent of his or her parent or guardian.

Unless otherwise disclosed to children and their parents during the information collection process, PEG does not provide any personally identifiable information, regardless of its source, to any third party for any purpose whatsoever concerning our students or visitors under 13 years of age. When necessary to protect a child's privacy online, we may request a child to choose a screen name and secret password in registering to use our services.

When a student or visitor under age 13 registers with us, he or she is required to provide the email address of a parent or guardian so that we can send that parent or guardian an email alerting them to the registration. In order for the child to use the service for which the child registered, the parent or guardian must validate the registration, as described in the alerting email. In the alerting email, we will inform the parent what we intend to do with the information the child has provided, and we will inform the parent how to review or delete the information. We will not retain a child's email address without a parent's permission. No information collected from students or visitors under 13 years of age is used for any marketing or promotional purposes whatsoever, except as explicitly stated during a registration process for contests or promotions (and in that case, the information collected is used only for the specific contest or promotion). Although students and visitors under 13 years of age may be allowed to participate in some contests and promotions, if such a person wins, notification and prizes shall be sent to the parent or guardian identified in the initial registration process. Publication of names, ages or images for contest winners under age 13 requires explicit parental or guardian consent. We do not allow students or visitors under 13 years of age to be listed in any student or visitor directory or to receive direct marketing communications or to be sent third-party offers.

Parents' Right to Review or Delete Information

A parent may review the information a child has submitted to us by sending us a written request addressed to Customer Service, Attn: Children's Online Privacy Act - Delete Request, 5200 SW Meadows Road, Suite 150, Lake Oswego, OR 97035. The request must include the name and address of the child, the child's password and any other information that will allow us to verify that writer is the parent of the child whose information is being requested. In addition, a parent can instruct us to delete a child's information at any time and can also instruct us not to collect any more personal information from the child by sending us a written request addressed to Customer Service, Attn: Children's Online Privacy Act - Delete Request, 5200 SW Meadows Road, Suite 150, Lake Oswego, OR 97035. All such deletion requests may preclude the child's participation in certain activities. A parent who has a question about our child privacy policy may telephone us at 1-888-832-9437.
