

Halloween Horrors

There is a group of people walking around on Halloween night. There's a Decepticon, transformer, and kid. While they are trick or treating, they find a house to go up to. They realize there is no one there and decide to walk away. Just then, the Decepticon forces everyone to go to the haunted house. There is a blocked road, and the only way around is going through the house. The transformer (Buzz Dean) transports a kid to the haunted house. The kid is skeptical about going inside so he asks the transformer to stay with him. The transformer must protect him from all threats inside of the house. If the kid gets hurt, it is up to the transformer to save him. The kid then finds a big robot that is inside one of the rooms of the house he's in.

The kid rides the robot. He finds a lot of scary stuff. The kid attacks the scary stuff. He finds Steve. Steve helps the kid. Steve sees a T-Rex. Steve and the kid ran. Ok we are safe but where is the T-Rex? I don't know, that's bad. Well let's go and run. The T-Rex is flying. Let's run now. Ok I mean it. Oh, ok run for your lives ok we run for our lives. We saved our lives no matter what we did. Now, we see a yo-yo of the dead came. Oh no run. We didn't see the yo-yo in the first place. The yo-yo stared at us. We stared at it back. We taught it to jump. It liked us and we liked it too. So, Steve, do you like it? Yes, I do. So, we see Bob, the robot, and Steve, all like each other. Now let's go Bob. They saved Carson. Bob and Steve decide to move. No! said Carson and Leo. We must stay! We have to figure out our way out of this place together.

Steve, the transformer, and the kid fight a zombie inside of the haunted house. The haunted house is full of spider webs and spooky decorations. There are candles that are slowly burning out giving a creepy look to the house. As they are fighting the zombie, they notice more rooms inside the house. They figure out that they need a key to get out. But what would the key be? Maybe it's an ordinary key but maybe it's a skeleton. The team must work together to get out. But first, in order to get anywhere else, they must defeat the zombie. The kid gets knocked down, but Steve helps him get back up. After a long battle, and a lot of hard work the zombie seems like he's dying.

The zombie gets knocked out after the fight. They go to the Minecraft end where they must fight the Ender dragon. Then they find an end ship in an end city and get Elytra. Then they fly to Los Angeles but then they find a Nether portal and get ender pearls and then teleport to a fortress, but they are attacked by evil iron golems, then they get teleported to the backrooms and then they teleport back to the overworld and find Dream and he gives them 64 notch apples and 256 diamonds and gold. Then Leo Bauer the friendly ender man, Charlee the friendly creeper, and April the friendly ghastr lead them to 3064 Pfluger Lane in Pflugerville, Texas and they meet Kobi Harding, The void Phoenix, Ruler of the Void. Then they play Minecraft in her gaming room. Then Jamie Marcella the Friendly blaze comes. She follows the group to the game room and says it is too cold. Then Kobi comes and says, "Follow me." They follow her to the void by jumping into her computer and then they find a kitten that is black and has dots on it. She says it is a void kitten. They ride it to the deep dark and the warden gives them soup with steak in it. When they eat the soup, they get teleported into a cave, and they see a creeper vomit on a gold ore and a skeleton comes and cleans it up and walks away. Then they followed Kobi to a shady oak forest, but when they got there it was already nighttime. Kobi flies up and says there are no players to hurt them. Then they see glowing purple eyes starting to surround them. They realize they are ender man. The ender man king comes and yeets them into the air and their tech stops working and Steve turns into a baby slime and cries. Then the baby pearl dragon comes and one-hit K.O.s the ender man king and teleports out of existence.

Then the transformers fight. The kid comes back and sees that they are fighting. The kid says why are you guys fighting. The transformers say because we are not on the same team. Buzz dean knocks out the decepticon. The kid and Buzz dean celebrate the win. They throw their Halloween costume masks in the air to celebrate. Then a bunny comes and jumps in the air for them and gives them a stack of diamond blocks. Along with the diamond blocks, the bunny accidentally drops skeleton pieces. The kid says, oh hey, isn't that the key out of this creepy house. The kid picks up the key, walks over to the door pushing the spiderwebs and spiders out of the way. He puts the key in the door just to realize, it's not a key. It is a skeleton arm. He needs to go back and retrieve the actual key piece. He goes back and finally retrieves the correct key. Finally! Freedom! The end.
